Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tilden are spending a few days with friends in Northfield.

John Berinato and F. M. Andreani left last night on a business trip to Boston. The public schools of the city reopened this morning, after the holiday recess of two weeks.

Miss Amy Williams of Maple avenue began work this morning in O. J. Dodge's jewelry store.

Ivan Perry and Bernard Lewis returned yesterday from a week's visit in New York.

You will never be puzzled about putting a Standard pattern together. A correct size is a correct fit.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cady of South Woodbury spent Sunday with Mrs. Cady's mother in this city.

Arthur Vivian, who has been employed in Cayhuc's lunch room on Depot square, returned yesterday to his home in Granville.

Regular meeting of local No. 481, C. and J. of A., Monday evening, January 9. Installation of officers. Let all members be present.

Goddard seminary's basketball team will play its first game of the season in the Church street gymnasium Saturday night, against the Northfield Independents. The seminary squad has been out for practice daily since school reopened, and a fast game is expected. The local team will probably line up as follows: Forwards, Richardson and Carr; center, Fiske; guards, Chapple and Melver.

"The Soul Kiss," which is described as a merry mixture of mirth and melody, is the offering at the opera house to-night, when it will make its initial bow to local lovers of the best in the field of musical comedy. The company that will be seen here is the same that is appearing in all the large cities and is said to contain some sixty people. They have been picked from the ranks of the best musical attractions and directed under the able stage management of Julian Mitchell, that king of all stage directors.

In Mr. and Mrs. Bacon, who come to the Pavilion to-day, the management of this popular little theatre has one of the best banjo acts now touring the country. Besides playing numerous selections, these people give two imitations, that are truly remarkable, one being an imitation of an old colored parson, saying the Lord's prayer; the other is an imitation of a little girl repeating, "Now I Lay Me," etc. In both cases the instruments are fairly made to talk, the illusion being so perfect that it requires but little imagination on the part of the auditor to hear the words. Wood and Meadows, a refined comedy act, which is said to be good, also comes to-day.

Dress goods are going fast at Fitts'.
